Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Certain statements contained herein may constitute forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or our future performance. All statements other than statements of historical fact may be forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are often, but not always, identified by the use of words such as "seek", "anticipate", "plan", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "may", "will", "project", "predict", "potential", "targeting", "intend", "could", "might", "should", "believe" and similar expressions. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements. We believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable based upon management's current views but no assurance can be given that these expectations will prove to be correct and such forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon. These statements speak only as of the date hereof. Except where required by law, we do not intend, and do not assume any obligation, to update conclusions, forecasts or projections that may be contained in these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. No assurance can be given that actual results, performance or achievement expressed in, or implied by these forward-looking statements will occur, or if they do, that any benefits may be derived from them. Past results and information provided by third party sources considered to be accurate have been applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward-looking information.

Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of factors that may include, but are not limited to: a failure to complete the business combination referred to herein, the impact of government regulation and laws affecting international operations, the impact of price competition, loss of business or credit risks associated with current and prospective major customers, general industry and market conditions and growth rates, currency rate fluctuations, the impact of consolidations in the online gaming industry and other risks detailed from time to time in Chartwell's Annual Information Form and Management's Discussion and Analysis, both of which may be found at www.sedar.com
